  - Closed footwear must be worn at all times.
  - No smoking is allowed at training sessions.
  - Evacuation signs are posted throughout the training areas.
CUSTOMISATION

To ensure the qualification is relevant and effective for the Apprentice/Trainee, Oceania College of Technology consults with all parties not only to choose the units of competency they want delivered, but also to identify where the clients business applications can be utilised and combined into the training program.

This customisation is more applicable in delivery modes 1 and 2 from the previous Section OUR DELIVERY METHODS. The customisation process begins prior to commencement of training and then throughout the qualification as the Client Manager uses the workplace environment and resources to assist where possible in the delivery of the training.

In consultation with the employer and the apprentice/trainee, Oceania College of Technology designs and develops a “training plan” which sets goals and timeframes towards completing your qualification. The elective units selected will best match your needs and the needs of the employer.

Trainees and Apprentices

“Apprenticeships and traineeships combine training with working in a real job, for a real boss, with a real wage”.

A Trainee can be anyone who is completing a qualification from certificate II to a Diploma and who is being trained in a vocational area. These vocational areas include, but are not limited to, office administration, information technology and hospitality. Traineeships are defined by usually having a nominal time to complete between 12 to 24 months and by any age group.

An Apprentice can be anyone who is usually completing a Certificate III level qualification and their nominal times to complete are generally between 36 to 48 months.

- Training of “how to do a task” is best achieved by simply DOING it and the best way of doing is by doing REAL thing on the job.
- On the job, a Supervisor trains his/her Students continuously.
- Our “On the Job” training program puts structure to this process.
- When Oceania College of Technology isn’t in the work place, the Supervisor continues the process of day to day training of the Apprentice/Trainee, as they normally do anyway.
- We provide guidance and support as to program structure.
- We also provide text books and/or Learning Guides and other Learning Resources, where appropriate.
- We visit regularly throughout the qualification.
During this time the Oceania College of Technology Trainer & Assessor will:

1. Talk to the Employer/Supervisor in general terms about the progress

2. Discuss with the Apprentice/Trainee the work prepared since the last visit, ask questions, clarify issues and provide training

3. Complete any due assessment. This will involve seeking the opinion of the Employer/supervisor as to the competence of the Apprentice/Trainee.

4. Update the Training LOG Book and any other documentation

5. Provide hands on practical training, theory and/or underpinning knowledge for the Apprentice/Trainee

If you are unable to attend or arrive on time for a training session, you must phone as soon as possible and advise Oceania College of Technology. Attendance records are kept as part of your assessment process.

EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

For all accredited qualifications delivered by Oceania College of Technology, there is a summary of the Employability Skills that are embedded in the learning. Employability skills are skills that apply across a variety of jobs and life contexts. For all qualifications there are a select number of Employability skills and these can be obtained from http://www.myskills.gov.au/.
NATIONAL RECOGNITION / CREDIT TRANSFER POLICY

National Recognition (Credit) means credit towards a qualification is granted to the student on the basis of outcomes gained by the student through previous participation in a course or training package qualification, with another Registered Training Organisation.

National recognition (Credit), for an applicable unit of competency, is available to any student when enrolling with Oceania College of Technology. It is recommended that the student expresses the will to apply for Credit before signing the Training Plan.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING

Recognition of Prior Learning is the process that recognises a student's current skills and experience regardless of where and when the learning occurred. Applications for RPL are based on whole competencies. Students can base their application on any combination of formal or informal training and education, work experience or general life experience.

Students will need to contact the Oceania College of Technology Assessor for information on the RPL process. To apply for Recognition of Prior Learning students will need to complete the RPL form and attach their supporting evidence.

Unsuccessful applicants have the right to formally appeal the RPL assessment, through the institute academic appeals process.

Step by Step Process of Recognition of Prior Learning

At the sign up and induction, RPL is discussed and the opportunity to participate in RPL is always available throughout the training. If at the signup or after commencement of the qualification you and your Apprentice/Trainee identify units of competency that you both believe he/she can already demonstrate the level of achievement required, then he/she can apply for RPL of those units. Simply inform the Oceania College of Technology consultant at sign up or your Oceania College of Technology Trainer & Assessor. They will assist you in going to the next step in the RPL process.

If you believe you or any of your staff have attained skills and knowledge through experience that result in you being able to demonstrate competence in some or all units of competency in a qualification, then you can apply for RPL. Contact the Oceania College of Technology office for assistance.
Table 1 below outlines the RPL process that occurs for an Apprentice/Trainee:

<tr>
<td>Step 1</td>
<td>Choose your path and identify RPL opportunities</td>
<td>With your employer and Trainer &amp; Assessor, discuss any areas of the qualification you believe you are already experienced and competent in. If the employer agrees, go to the next step.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 2</td>
<td>Applying for RPL and collecting evidence</td>
<td>Discuss with the Oceania College of Technology Trainer &amp; Assessor the areas of your qualification you wish to apply for RPL. Your Oceania College of Technology Trainer &amp; Assessor will ask you to complete an application form and you and your employer will need to sign this. At this stage you will be informed of the types of evidence you will need to start gathering. They will discuss with you how you are expected to demonstrate competence through the RPL process. This may require gathering and mapping evidence or it may require demonstrating competence, or completing a formal assessment paper. The options will be clearly outlined.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 3</td>
<td>Meet with the Oceania College of Technology Trainer &amp; Assessor</td>
<td>The Oceania College of Technology Trainer &amp; Assessor will work through the units that still require evidence and will ask relevant questions to identify competence. One of the best ways to collect evidence is to record you talking about your skills, experience and knowledge. Oceania College of Technology can do this though using i.e. audio visual recorder.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 4</td>
<td>Third Party Feedback</td>
<td>As part of your RPL, Third party feedback may need to be completed if:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>a. the assessor requires more evidence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>b. your workplace supervisor can give strong evidence for some subject areas which require a workplace perspective.</td>

<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This step can be completed face to face or over the phone.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 5</td>
<td>Outcome and Feedback Report</td>
<td>Once all your evidence is collected, you will be given feedback within 21 days. A result of competent or not yet competent will be given. If not yet competent, the Oceania College of Technology Trainer &amp; Assessor will outline what needs to occur to achieve competence.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 6</td>
<td>Action Plan</td>
<td>This is only required if you are deemed not yet competent in any units of competency in your qualification. An action plan will be put in place to achieve competence. This action plan may be gap training or gathering some specific evidence to demonstrate competence.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 7</td>
<td>Your results</td>
<td>On successful completion of RPL, your results will be recorded on your training plan as part of your Apprenticeship/Traineeship.</td>

LANGUAGE LITERACY AND NUMERACY

Some students may have language, literacy and/or numeracy (LLN) difficulties and the Oceania College of Technology trainers & assessors are required to identify:

The level of LLN skills required to undertake the relevant training/course and the level of language, literacy and numeracy skills which the student demonstrates.

It is the Trainers & assessors responsibility to ensure the relevant LLN needs of the student are met in the training plan.

Trainers & assessors should ensure that their training/assessment (essays, books, notes, guides, oral instructions, lectures, etc) do not require skills which are more complex than those needed to undertake the relevant training/course.

All students will be required to undertake a simple screening check for LLN skills as part of a sign-up process.

The result of the LLN will be evaluated by an appropriately qualified manager and recommendations will be made to the trainer & assessor for discussion with the student. Depending in the outcome an option may be for the student to be more appropriately enrolled in an alternative training course.

COURSE FEES

Oceania College of Technology is committed to the provision of a fair and equitable policy for the terms of payment course fees. The scope of this policy includes the provision of training programs by Oceania College of Technology either under a government funded program or a ‘fee for service’ arrangement.

GOVERNMENT FUNDED PROGRAMS

2010-2015 USER CHOICE PROGRAM

In accordance with our contract with the Department of Education and Training (DET) for the delivery of Apprenticeships and Traineeships funded by the “2010-2015 User Choice Program”, Oceania College of Technology will charge “Student Contribution Fees” to students participating in Certificate II or above qualifications. Students participating in a School Based Apprenticeship/Traineeship do not incur in Student Contribution Fees.

Effective from the 1st of January 2013, Student Contribution fees are calculated at the following rate:

$1.60 per nominal hour for each unit of competency or module delivered. Student Contribution Fees are set and adjusted by The Department of Education and Training.

Please note that course fees are not subject to GST.
Below is an example of costing and how it’s calculated. The Department of Education and Training may amend the fees chargeable on an annual basis, based on CPI. If this occurs, your Client Manager will inform you of this with a written notice prior to changes.

Example on how Student Contribution Fees will be calculated:

An apprentice completing Certificate III in Automotive Mechanical Technology (Light Vehicle) completes a unit of competency such as “Carry out diagnostic procedures” which has 20 Nominal Hours completion time. Therefore 20 hours x $1.60 = $32.00.

The whole Apprenticeship has an approximate total nominal hours of 960 hours x $1.60 = $1,536.00. This amount divided by the number of years it takes to complete the qualification. In this case an example may be four years. Therefore, the cost would be approximately $384 per year. Divided into 12 months would be approximately $32.00 per month.

User Choice Fee Exemptions

A student may be exempt from paying full/partial fees, if it can be shown that they fall into one or more of the following exemption categories:

Partial Exemptions

OCT will not charge more than 40% of the student contribution fee where the student falls into one or more of the following exemption categories:

- A student has not completed Year 12 and was or will be under 17 years of age at the end of February, in the year in which the RTO delivered training is undertaken. (Proof of age is required).

- Where the student is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person. Acceptable evidence is as stated on the Training Contract and AVETMISS VET Enrolment Form.

- A student holds a Health Care Card or pensioner card or issues our training organisation with an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the student, his or her partner or the person of whom the student is a dependant, is entitled to concessions under a health care card or pensioner concession card. It is the responsibility of the Apprentice/Trainee to ensure a current document is supplied. If the currency of the document provided lapses, the Apprentice will be billed at full rate until a certified copy is received by Oceania College of Technology.
Full Exemptions

OCT will not charge the student contribution fee where the student falls into one or more of the following exemption categories:

- If it can be shown that payment would cause extreme financial hardship for the student.
- A student is a School Based Apprentice or Trainee.
- A student satisfies the Year 12 fee-free training criteria - Year 12 graduates who enrol in a high priority qualification within 12 months of leaving school. Students must have completed Year 12 in Queensland and hold a Senior Statement issued by the Queensland Studies Authority.

Provision of partial and full exemptions will be in place at the time of the enrolment.

Students eligible for concessions will be required to provide the appropriate identification and will be able to pay 100% of their fees to ensure they receive full concession entitlement.

CERTIFICATE 3 GUARANTEE

As part of the "Great Skills, Real Opportunities" reform action plan, the Queensland Government will provide eligible Queenslanders with subsidised training in one certificate level III qualification. The level of subsidy for each qualification will vary based on the course and skilling needs of industry and employers.

Certificate 3 Guarantee funding is available on selected qualifications at Oceania College of Technology. You can find out more about these qualifications and the level of funding by talking to one of our Business Development Consultants or visiting www.oct.edu.au.

To be eligible for the Certificate 3 Guarantee, students must:

- not hold or be currently undertaking a certificate III or higher level qualification (This does not include qualifications undertaken while at secondary school);
- be 15 years of age or older;
- have finished secondary school or left school;
- be an Australian citizen or permanent resident, or New Zealand citizen; permanently residing in Queensland.

Employment status does not matter and nor is there any minimum education requirement, only the standard entry requirements for the course of study.

Important Note: Eligible individuals must understand that the entitlement under the Certificate 3 Guarantee is for only one Government subsidised training place in a funded Certificate III qualification. It is very important that you take the time to consider and compare your training options and costs, before signing an enrolment form or committing to a course of study which will use up your entitlement.

Student Contribution Fees

Although the majority of the training costs are subsidised by the Queensland Government, there is a sum of essential costs that students will need to contribute towards their training. These are known as “Student Contribution Fees”. Student Contribution Fees include tuition fees, services fees, materials fees and all other costs associated with delivering the training and awarding your qualification. These are outlined in the table below:

Upon course enrolment, payment of an upfront student contribution deposit consisting of the first two (2) units (as per fees listed in Table 2 – Certificate 3 Guarantee Student Contribution Fees). Student Contribution fees for the remaining units will be invoiced on completion of each unit of competency.

OCT’s policy on the refund of Course fees and other course money for students has been developed to satisfy the requirements of the VET Quality Framework - The National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011, Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations 2011, or State Legislation or regulatory requirements for the operation of a Registered Training organisation.

This policy applies to all new and re-enrolling students under the 2010-2015 User Choice Program, the 2014-2015 Certificate 3 Guarantee Program and to students enrolling under fee for service arrangements. The following sections outline how Refunds will be processed in each above mentioned cases:

1. Government Funded Programs
   a. 2010-2015 User Choice Program

Student contribution fees for User Choice funded qualifications are set in accordance with the 2010-2015 User Choice Program Policy (http://training.qld.gov.au/training-organisations/user-choice/documents-2010-2015.html) and will only be invoiced on completion of each unit of competency. Because all fees are charged at completion of services delivered, there is no refund policy applicable. However, should there be a dispute of charges, please contact the Accounts Department. If resolution is not reached at this point, please escalate your concerns to the Director of Oceania College of Technology where it can be documented as a formal complaint and will be managed through the Complaints and Appeals process.

Student contribution fees are set at the discretion of Oceania College of Technology for selected qualifications as established in the Certificate 3 Guarantee Program Policy 2014-2015 (http://training.qld.gov.au/information/investing-in-skills/certificate3/training-provider.html). Upon course enrolment, payment of an upfront student contribution deposit consisting of the first two (2) units (as per fees listed in Table 2 – Certificate 3 Guarantee Student Contribution Fees). Student Contribution fees for the remaining units will be invoiced on completion of each unit of competency. Because all remaining student contribution fees are charged at completion of services delivered, there is no refund policy applicable. However, should participants wish to finalise incomplete units of competency in a future course, the original fee can be used as a credit towards that course. This offer is available within a 12 month period from the time the initial payment is made.

TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATION ALLOWANCE

The Department of Education and Training provides financial assistance to subsidise additional expenditure incurred by the student (other than school-based Apprentices) who travel more than 100km return to attend off-the-job training in conjunction with their Apprenticeship/Traineeship training arrangements.

TRAINING LOG BOOK

Each student will receive a TRAINING LOG BOOK prior to the commencement of training. This book records evidence that all competencies required for the chosen qualification have been achieved. Your work supervisor is required to sign this record of work evidence. This work evidence is regularly submitted to OCT for the purpose of recording on-the-job competency. OCT uses these records as additional evidence to confirm competence. This process requires the cooperation of all parties involved – apprentice, employer and trainer.

The book also provides a permanent record of your workplace activities and achievements during your period of training. It is also a guide for you and your employer for the on-site training that should occur during your apprenticeship or traineeship, in accordance with your Training Plan for the qualification you are seeking.

The Importance of the TRAINING LOG BOOK

You have responsibility for the care and security of this book because it provides a permanent record of your workplace training. If your training is interrupted by illness or you move to another workplace, this Record will show what has been completed and where your training should recommence.

The TRAINING LOG BOOK is used to:

- Record the results of observing the demonstration of skills and comment on the progress of the apprentice
- Track progress by demonstrating work evidence from the workplace
How to use the TRAINING LOG BOOK

Demonstrating or achieving tasks should be completed as part of your routine work and not as a special activity. When you successfully complete a task and provide the required work evidence, your employer/supervisor initials and dates each performance criteria and signs and date the bottom of each unit. This certifies that you have undertaken all of the tasks listed.

Important notes

- Each performance criteria must be initialled and dated by you and your employer
- Your trainer will initial and date each performance criteria
- Your TRAINING LOG BOOK must be at your work each day so that records can be kept up to date
- You must bring your TRAINING LOG BOOK to every OCT training session.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment is competency based and it’s designed to determine whether the student can demonstrate competency in units.

All assessment must meet the criteria of the training package or accredited course on which the program is based. Assessment may be undertaken on or off the job. If conducted in the workplace, suitably qualified workplace assessors and assessment procedures are to be used.

The Oceania College of Technology Compliance Team and Managers are required to ensure operational integrity and compliance to AQF principles and standards are maintained at all times. They are also required to review, evaluate and adjust, as required, the assessment systems in place to ensure validity, reliability, fairness and flexibility.

RECORDS MANAGEMENT

When you enrol with Oceania College of Technology you may be assured that the personal information you provide is protected under the Privacy Act 1988. This Act imposes obligations on Oceania College of Technology in its collection, storage, use and disclosure of your personal information.

Transition to a New Training Package

Training packages/curricula are regularly reviewed and revised to ensure they meet current industry needs. It is a requirement under the NVR to ensure that steps are taken to manage the transition to new or reviewed Training Packages within 12 months of their publication. If a new training package is introduced during your apprenticeship, you may be required to transition to this new training package, which will require a new training plan. OCT will notify you if this occurs.

We will increase opportunities for people to participate in the vocational education and training (VET) system, and in associated decisions that affect their lives. Appropriate student support services will be provided to maximize the chances of under-represented students achieving positive learning outcomes and placement/employment in their chosen career.

Oceania College of Technology recognises that equity and diversity considerations and initiatives go beyond extending a helping hand to the ‘disadvantaged’ and responding to legislative imperatives. Fair and equitable access to Vocational Education and Training (VET) can assist all Australians to gain meaningful employment and participate in the economic and social life in their community. This policy is a mechanism to demonstrate Oceania College of Technology commitment to State and National equity legislation and policy requirements including:

- Racial Discrimination Act (1975) Commonwealth
- National Strategy for the Education of Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander People 1996 - 2002
- Anti-Discrimination Act (1991) Queensland
• Multicultural Queensland Policy (1998)

EQUITY

Equity essentially means ‘fairness’. In the VET context it means that people are provided with the opportunity to access, participate and successfully achieve outcomes. Underpinning the principles of equity is the recognition by Oceania College of Technology:

• that it is common for people to identify with more than one equity group;
• of the differences within and between equity groups;
• that each equity group does not experience the same type of disadvantage; and
• There remain many common systemic barriers for equity groups.

DIVERSITY

Diversity recognises that many factors influence the ability of people to participate and succeed in vocational education, training and employment, including: prior educational experience, cultural diversity, language and / or learning styles, goals and expectations, motivation, work and social experiences, gender, values and beliefs, religion, income, age, geographic location.

This policy aims to address the requirements of all potential and actual learners, seeking to participate in training with Oceania College of Technology including specific equity groups such as:

• Indigenous Australian peoples;
• people with a disability;
• people from non-English speaking backgrounds;
• people with English literacy and numeracy needs;

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION & SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

Oceania College of Technology adheres to principles of access and equity and to maximise outcomes for our clients.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION

It is the policy of Oceania College of Technology to ensure that the Anti-Discrimination Acts of the State Government and Discrimination Acts of the Federal Government are adhered to. These Acts include, but are not limited to, the Federal Government Racial Discrimination, Human Rights and Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and Sex Discrimination Acts. Also included is the Queensland Government Anti-Discrimination Act, which deals with all the foregoing Federal Acts.
The organisation does not tolerate any form of discrimination. All persons on site (including visitors) have the right to an environment free of discrimination and harassment.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The policy of Oceania College of Technology is that sexual harassment is an unacceptable form of behaviour, which will not be tolerated under any circumstances. We believe that all persons on site (including visitors) have the right to an environment free of intimidation and sexual harassment.

Sexual harassment may cause the loss of trained and talented employees and damage staff morale and productivity.

Under the Queensland Anti-Discrimination Act and the Federal Sex Discrimination Act, sexual harassment is against the law.

All Oceania College of Technology employees must ensure that all persons on site (including visitors) are treated equitably and are not subject to sexual harassment. They must also ensure that people, who make complaints, or act as witnesses, are not victimised in any way.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE DISCRIMINATED AGAINST OR SEXUALLY HARASSED?

You have the right to feel safe and to have full opportunity to achieve your potential in your study. Don’t let harassment interfere with your life. If you are being harassed seek help immediately.

There are several options. Choose the course of action you feel most comfortable with. Do not ignore discrimination or sexual harassment, thinking it will go away – often discrimination just gets worse and silence may give the impression that discrimination or sexual harassment is acceptable.

You may:

- Tell the person they are making you uncomfortable and ask them to stop.
- Make a complaint to one of the staff from Oceania College of Technology
- Or
- Make a complaint under Anti-Discrimination Legislation to the Queensland Anti-Discrimination Commission and Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission:
