STUDY EXPERIENCE

Study, training & support

Practical learning. Clear guidance. Support throughout your study.

Learning resources

OCT provides printed learning materials.

Discuss your capabilities and any support needs during the course entry interview.

Delivery arrangements

OCT operates a rolling intake. Students may commence in any unit and in any order, as the units have no prerequisites. New students join ongoing classes in line with OCT's trainer-to-student ratio. A timetable identifies workshop training and assessment days.

TEXTBOOK ACCESS

Textbooks are available in the library. Buy your own for ongoing access; student support can help arrange them.

PRACTICAL CLASSES

OCT provides printed learning materials.
Bring your own PPE and safety boots to every class.

01 Student Support System

Student support is available throughout your study. Refer to the Student Handbook for available services.

02 Assessment System

Units are assessed individually through written assessment, verbal questioning and practical demonstrations observed by the assessor.

03 RPL + Credit Transfer

Prior learning and credit transfer may reduce course duration. All students may apply for RPL. Refer to the RPL and CT policy in the Student Handbook or website.

04 Assessment Appeals

Appeal assessment decisions through the Complaints and Appeals Policy in the Student Handbook or website. Complaints and appeals follow the published procedure.
